

Discuss the findings with stakeholders

The self-study findings from Step 6 (above) should be shared with faculty members and residents/fellows. This step should validate the findings and improvement priorities chosen by the self-study group with these key stakeholders.