II. Policy

A. Employees may be placed on paid investigational leave when UT Health San Antonio is conducting an investigation and the employee is the subject of the investigation; or victim of, or witness to, an event or act that is the subject of an investigation.

UT Health San Antonio may not use any other leave provision within Government Code Section 661, Subchapter Z as a basis for providing paid leave to an employee because he or she is the subject of an investigation being conducted by the institution.¹

1. The reason the employee should be placed on investigational leave,
2. The estimated number of hours to be used, and
3. The estimated dates the investigational leave will be used

The report must include the name of each agency employee who has been granted 168 hours or more of paid investigation leave, the dates and hours of leave, and a brief statement as to the reason the employee is or was on such leave.

The Office of Human Resources is responsible for sending the agency investigation report each quarter. In compliance with the above reporting requirements, any agency investigation leave granted must be sent to HR-LeaveAdmin@uthscsa.edu.
