Chapter 8	Health and Safety	Effective:	June 2000
Section 8.1	Bloodborne Pathogens Policy	Revised:	September 2005
Policy 8.1.6	Education of Students, Faculty, Staff, and Employees About Bloodborne Pathogens	Responsibility:	Vice President for Research

EDUCATION OF STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF, AND EMPLOYEES ABOUT BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS

Guidance

As stated in the Health Science Center's Exposure Control Plan, the Health Science Center adheres to the Universal or Standard Precautions for the Prevention of Transmission of Human Immunodeficiency Virus, Hepatitis B Virus, and Other Bloodborne Pathogens in Health Care Settings published by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Consistent with the early education of students, staff, and employees in these and other pertinent data relevant to potential infection, the following approach will be taken.

Educational Program

Each School will provide a program on prevention of exposure to infectious organisms in professional and personal situations early in the student's educational experience and at the beginning of clinical rotations.

Each administrative division of the Health Science Center will provide an educational program for staff and employees to take place early in the employment and to focus upon prevention of exposure to infectious organisms in the workplace as warranted by the occupational risk.

Content of Program

The Infection Policy and Education Committee shall advise and review the development of appropriate educational programs. At the conclusion of Health Science Center educational programs/curriculum on bloodborne pathogens, the participant should be able to:

- a. Have a basic understanding of HIV, HBV, and HCV as viral disease and its natural history.
- b. Recognize how viruses are transmitted and contacts that do not transmit the virus.
- c. Recognize the symptoms of bloodborne pathogens and the degrees/stages of these illnesses.
