

OFFICE FOR FACULTY EXCELLENCE

Overview

All four missions (Teaching, Research, Practice and Scholarship) of the School of Nursing are served by the Office for Faculty Excellence. This office is committed to delivering a service that is respectful and equitable for all faculty members at the School of Nursing. The quality of service and resources provided by this office facilitates and enables faculty to function at their optimum level while ensuring faculty success. The Office for Faculty Excellence provides professional development opportunities while fostering a work environment that is motivating and inspirational. The goal of this office is to promote faculty success to achieve their professional career goals, which provides the framework for the School of Nursing's overall mission and goals.